LOOK for the following points in the manure spreader you buy: 1. Correct, efficient, well-tested design. 2. Guarantee of first-class materials. 3. Reinforcing of parts where strains usually come. 4. Strength of parts where occasional strains come. 5. Wearing qualities and protection of driving parts. 6. Reputation of manufacturer, insuring efficient repair service. Satisfied American farmers find these essentials in International manure spreaders. International spreaders have, besides, many features that grew out of long field experience. Study the steel construction in frame, wheels, and driving mechanism; the easily-removable beater; the differentials in rear axles, insuring even spreading while turning corners; the reversible worm and gear; low, easily-loaded box; and many others. International spreaders are of all styles and sizes, high and low, endless and reverse apron. Write for illustrated catalogues, and when we send them we will tell you where you may see the spreaders.

CITIZENS BANQUET COMMERCIAL CLUB

Gadsby hall filled with enthusiastic Alliance citizens—speakers followed banquet

Gadsby hall was the scene Wednesday evening of a unique gathering—it was filled with live Alliance business men and visitors from neighboring towns who came to the "organization feed" of the Alliance club and to meet Secretary Fisher.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the Christian church and was deliciously prepared and served with promptness in a manner that excited admiration for the capable manner in which it was handled. The menu was as follows:

Cream Chicken	Hot Biscuits
Mashed Potatoes	Gravy
June Peas	Relish
Onions	Pickles
Salad	Jelly
Pie	Cottage Cheese
	Cake
	Coffee
	Cigars

First on the program was a song composed by Secretary Fisher. It was entitled, "Boosting Song," and was sung to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia." The accompanist on the piano was Norman McCorkle. The song was joined by all with earnestness. It was: Listen for awhile and we will sing our Booster song.

Sing it with a spirit of six thousand good and strong.

Sing it with the energy that helps a town along.

Boosting for Alliance together.

CHORUS

Hurrah, hurrah, we sing the jubilee.

Hurrah, burrah, we're proud as we can be.

All the country 'round us is as rich as it can be.

Boosting for Alliance together.

Together we are striving in boosting up our town.

Working all together for the country miles around.

Working with the spirit that is seldom beaten down.

Boosting for Alliance together.

CHORUS

The first speaker on the program was introduced by toastmaster Guthrie. R. M. Hampton greeted the visitors and those present in the name of the commercial club. Mr. Hampton's speech brought out rounds of applause as he brought out telling facts from time to time. He spoke of the first club organized here as a commercial club and its ending. He told of the organization of the second club and its ending. "Western Nebraska needs advertising," said Mr. Hampton. He told of visiting a building at Chattanooga, Tenn., this spring and of the entire building occupied there by the commercial organization. "Agitation would bring out many of the needs of Alliance," he said. He suggested that a city forester would help greatly to make uniform improvements along the streets and that the work of paving the streets could be taken up as a great improvement. He told of the park around the court house at Chadron, the result of the untiring work of one lady. "Improvement is a matter of education—not misrepresentation," he concluded.

A letter from L. W. Wakeley, of the Burlington, was read, stating that the Burlington was ready to stand their share of the expense of getting out a booklet describing the county.

The second speaker was George Snow, the well known Chadron newspaper man. He told of the good work being done there by the commercial club, stating that they had no paid secretary but that they made up for this in a way by the farm demonstrator who spends his time with the farmers in the county. "The little things are what count," said Mr. Snow. "We believe in keeping up the little things—things which different communities have in common. We want to be doing those things that will co-operate in building up western Nebraska. Western Nebraska can get what it needs only by the towns pulling together, especially in the state legislature."

A telegram was read from Representative Kinkaid at Washington stating that construction on the Alliance federal building would proceed within a year or more.

E. W. Parkenson, of Crawford, representing the Crawford commercial club, was the next speaker. He stated that their work this year was lined up and that they had purchased two teams and outfits to build roads and paying a man $100 per month to do this work. The Crawford club now has dues of $5, $2.50 and $1 per month. Mr. Parkenson said, "We believe in advertising western Nebraska and want to co-operate with the other towns in building up this end of the state. Crawford congratulates Alliance and sends the new commercial club their best wishes for its success."

W. M. Robinson, general manager of the Haddorf Piano Company, which has a branch in Alliance, and who owns farm property in the west section of the county, told of the success of their store here, having sold 600 pianos since establishing the store in Alliance seven years ago, making a net profit of from 12 to 16 per cent annually. "Alliance is the logical business center of this end of the state," he said. "I have land here and believe in the possibilities of advertising Box Butte county. Everyone in Alliance is a booster."

Prof. Sparks, head of the Chadron state normal, spoke of the normal and brought its compliments to Alliance to Alliance. "We are studying the educational problems of western Nebraska," he said. "The first duty of education is to create in the individual the capacity to care for his own wants."

Secretary Fisher made a detailed and very interesting talk. He told of his experience in conducting the commercial club work and of the needs of Alliance. The need of co-operation was emphasized by him. He told of the growth of the commercial club idea. "Fifteen years ago there were eight commercial clubs in Nebraska. Today there are 253," he said. "The buildings in a town do not make the city, but the people in it do," he said. "We want the moral and financial support of every citizen of Alliance and Box Butte county. 'Throwing mud' should not be tolerated. Commercial clubs and similar organizations are doing great work. Kansas tonight has a train in the east, sent by seven counties, to show what the state is doing. Shenandoah, Iowa, has a bargain day. Albia, Nebraska, recently had 164 men at a noon-day banquet. Seward has the budget system and raised this year $3,200. Norfolk raised $5400 last year. They had a cleanup campaign and hauled away 720 loads of trash in three days. The opinion of Alliance is good everywhere. Our goal here is over 250 members."

"The newspapers of Alliance should have the support of the business men," continued Mr. Fisher. "Newspapers don't get the support they should."

Work outlined for the Alliance commercial club by Mr. Fisher was: Seeling Alliance trip. Support for the band. Home product dinner. Boys' banquet. Ladies' banquet. Farmers' banquet. Securing of conventions. Parks for the city. Good roads. An employment bureau. Cleanup campaign. Post card day. Farm demonstrator.

Auxiliary organizations which can be a part of and work with the commercial club, as outlined by Mr. Fisher, are:

- An ad club.
- Automobile club.
- Merchants' federation.
- Junior commercial club.
- Woman's Commercial club.
- Farmers' commercial club.

In closing, Mr. Fisher recited a piece called, "A Booster", which brought the guests to their feet in a round of applause.

Prof. G. M. Burns told of the efforts of the school authorities to provide playgrounds and of the work being done in that direction. He told of the need of a public playground and a supervisor therefor.

"Jack" Miller of Alliance gave one of his stirring talks, using as his theme, "Let's Get Together." It was inspiring and splendid. "Don't criticize. Let's push. Be live ones," said Jack, among other good things.

A vote of thanks was given to the ladies, the band, and Normal McCorkle for their assistance in making the affair a success.

G. H. Wood Injured
G. H. Wood, an Alliance contracting painter, fell and was severely injured Wednesday while at work at the residence of Fred Allen. Mr. Wood was standing on a stepladder which tipped over causing him to fall. He struck on the porch step in such a way to severely injure his back. He was taken to his home and a physician was called. It was found that no bones were broken but that he had sustained severe bruises. It is probable that it will be several days before he will be able to resume his duties.

GERMOZONE'S Big Value
It is not so much in its great efficiency as a remedy for cough, croup, chicken pox and other diseases of poultry, but it is the greatest bowel regulator in the world for either poultry or stock (including pet stock), counteracting, especially, bowel troubles due to mussy, spoiled or improper food. With man, fowls or animals, regular bowels means health. Continued irregularity means some sickness, difficult to cure if not fatal. Thousands give Germozone regularly twice a week to chickens, young and old, at the same time having it ever handy as a ready remedy for other diseases. Sold by dealers or postpaid. One size only, 50 cents.

Scores of Herald Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys
To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak. Backache and other kidney ills may follow. Help the kidneys do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy. Alliance people endorse their worth. Mrs. J. E. Whaley, 422 E. Oregon St., Alliance, Nebr., says: "I have had no reason to change my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since I publicly recommended them in May 1907. Over three years ago my kidneys became badly disordered and the kidney secretions were unnatural. Whenever I stooped, sharp pains darted thru my loins and it was difficult for me to straighten. I tried many remedies but all failed to help me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Holsten's Drug Store. They brought relief in a short time and I continued using them until I was free from kidney complaint." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
